

Nineteen Hundred Fifty-Nine Annual of the Students of ROSMAN HIGH SCHOOL Rosman, North Carolina

We, the staff of this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-nine edition of the ORIOLE, invite you, our fellow students, friends, and teachers, to share with us the pleasure of looking back over this year and remembering our joys, hardships, and labors.

DEDICATION

Four years ago we entered Rosman High School. During this time, we have come to know Shirley as more than a secretary; we know her as one who is admired and respected by both the faculty and the student body.

In recognition of the many services performed by Shirley for us and for our school, the 1959 Senior Class proudly and sincerely dedicates this edition of the ORIOLE to Shirley Stewart.

"IF MOTHER ONLY KNEW"

The Maxwells are a fun-loving family, but when Mother starts getting notes, flowers and dinner invitations from a Dr. Gooch, they spring into action. Betty Lou envisions them homeless; waifs, and all alone in the world. Wilbur, the "shoot-a-mile" kid, can't come up with any solution until Dr. Gooch arrives. What the Maxwells don't know is that there are two Dr. Goochs, Gladys and husband. Mr. Maxwell arranges to defend his wife and is carted off to jail--almost.

The Junior Play will be long remembered as a hilarious, well portrayed sequence in the life of the ever popular Maxwells. The play was directed by Mr. Dysert.

Young ladies of today are inclined to have minds of their own. So, exciting results occurred when Mr. Page decided to end his daughter's romance with Jack Prescott by taking her for a trip to Florida. For weeks after the play, "POPPA SAYS NO" was a by-word in Rosman High.
